Making the Most
Of Our Opportunities

Course Description:

Our Business Skills class examines elements of successful entrepreneurship: Education, Customer Service, Advertising, Licensing, Supply & Demand, Expenses and Profit. We will apply our knowledge as we explore money-making opportunities in Coding/Technology, Music, Art, and in the World Economy.

Business Projects will include Student Businesses with Pamphlets and Slide Shows, Music & Rhythms Performances, World Economy Presentations (with food samples), a Student Art Show, and Coding Project Presentations. We will enjoy Guest Speakers.

Daily Supplies:

- One spiral notebook, college ruled, or one composition book
- Two mechanical pencils with erasers
- One blue pen and two highlighters or colored pencils

Assessments & Absences/Late Work

- Assessments will be given in the form of class notes, student summaries of concepts, and oral presentations. Quizzes may be given at any time.
- * Missed assignments must be completed/submitted. It is each student's responsibility to complete all assignments.
- * Late work: 10% deduction.

Participation

Our class is a place of discovery, teamwork and positive energy.

To receive full credit and benefit, students should:

- Complete all assignments. Be willing to try new things.
- * Participate positively in Discussions, Group Presentations and Projects.
- * Ask Questions. Offer Answers. Be Creative!
- * Include Others: Be Inclusive.

Technology in the Classroom

Students will soon have access to a class set of Ivy Chromebooks. There have been issues with the internet at our current school site. Room 20 will soon have a classroom projector to feature teacher, student and guest presentations.
