

The Power of Positive Feedback

Unconditional Positive Regard

Fondness for every student can be communicated through smiles, fairness, kindness, positive humor, and discretion when correcting behavior. Praising kindness, good work and good effort begets further and greater kindness, work and effort. Students flourish in a loving, predictably respectful atmosphere.

Resources

<https://www.opm.gov/policy-data-oversight/performance-management/performance-management-cycle/monitoring/the-power-of-positive-feedback/>

<https://www.edutopia.org/blog/tips-providing-students-meaningful-feedback-marianne-stenger>

<https://www.chronicle.com/article/The-Power-of-Positive-Regard/232547>

<http://www.ascd.org/publications/educational-leadership/jun16/vol73/num09/The-Power-of-Positive-Regard.aspx>

<https://qz.com/516813/you-should-demand-compliments-from-friends-and-colleagues-a-harvard-business-school-study-says/>

<https://www.forbes.com/sites/alisacohn/2017/07/21/in-praise-of-positive-feedback/#4f1509026db6>